Welcome to Eastham

... Where Natural Beauty Stays on Cape Cod

EASTHAM is still the hospitable, charming, favored place to vacation. Not even increasing numbers of visitors seem to spoil the natural friendliness of this famed town and its people. It combines historic settledness of its community living with some of the most superb vacationland coastline and facilities on the whole Atlantic seaboard.

Eastham's little side roads give you the beauty of wild roses, pine woods and sparkling fresh water ponds. Add to these the modern roads crisscrossing through the town as though to intertwine the natural beauty with a convenience and almost tangible sense of welcome. You soon realize Eastham can't be beat for joyous, comfortable living, whether for a week, a month or your lifetime.

We mean it from our hearts when we say we hope you have a good, healthy and happy time here.

From all your friends, the townspeople of Eastham

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

Please register at Town Hall. In case of emergency it will be easier to find you.

You must obtain a permit from the Fire Chief before setting an out-of-doors fire. Please note that this includes beach fires.

All beach parties or picnics held on Town beaches or Town landings that will continue after 8 p.m., MUST procure a permit from the Police Department in the Town Hall, or from the Police Cruiser, during 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. business hours.

ABOUT THE COVER

Are you able to tell who might have modeled for this year's Miss Eastham of the cover?

If you ask Eastham's watercolorist and cover artist, Harold White, you're apt to get a fishy answer. But he swears she was there one morning just as she's pictured. You won't learn at just which beach in Eastham, but you can't blame us for keeping this secret can you?

CAPE COD BIRDS

By Wallace Bailey, Director

Wellfleet Bay Wildlife Sanctuary, Massachusetts Audubon Society

THE first bird list for the Lower Cape belonged to explorer Champlain who, in 1605, described a strange sea fowl we now call a black skimmer and questioned Nauset Indians about what he determined to be a turkey. People have been studying and listing ever since, and Cape Cod has become known as the best place in the Northeast to observe birds.

The number of species tops 400 and the number of individuals reaches uncountable millions. Up to six million may pass overhead in a single night at the peak of the fall migration. Most of these night flights—high, fast and non-stop—pass unnoticed, but there are birds in plenty to be seen at every season.

In winter an Eider population of some 100,000 birds congregates off the elbow of Cape Cod. With them are about 10,000 scoters, 2000 oldsquaws, and many other sea fowl that make up one of the continent's largest concentrations of winter birdlife.

In summer the strength of numbers belongs to the shorebirds—the sandpipers and larger waders that rest from their arctic-to-Caribbean migration on the vast marshes, mud flats, and sandy bars of the Lower Cape. In the 1800's market gunners filled their barrels with knots, black-bellies, and yellow-legs from the Nauset marshes day after day, spring and fall. Protective legislation came in 1913, barely in time to save them from extermination. Most species revived under protection, but today's pressure from civilization will prevent full recovery.

Best known of the shorebirds are the terns. Fishermen call them mackerel gulls and follow their lead to good fishing. Poets

Here is one good reason more families like to vacation or live year 'round in Eastham.

CAPE COD RECIPES

Quahog Chowder

Cut  $1\frac{1}{2}$  inch cube fat salt pork in small pieces and fry out.

Add 1 sliced onion and brown slightly.

Add 4 cups potatoes cut in  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch cubes, and  $2\frac{1}{2}$  cups hot water, 1 teaspoon salt,  $\frac{1}{8}$  teaspoon pepper and 6 to 8 large quahogs, chopped fine.

Cook about 15 minutes. Add 4 tablespoons butter and 4 cups scalded milk.

A little of the juice from the quahogs may be added if desired.

Quahog Pie

Combine 2 cups chopped quahogs,  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup quahog liquor, 1 tablespoon melted butter,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup cracker crumbs, 1 beaten egg, 1 cup milk, salt and pepper.

Line a deep pie plate with pastry. Pour in filling. Cover with top crust. Cut hole in center.

Bake about 1 hour at 375 degrees. Serve very hot with mashed potatoes.

Quahog Cakes

Chop or grind 6 large quahogs. Add 1 egg, 1 teaspoon minced onion,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt, pepper and enough cracker crumbs to hold together (not too dry).

Put spoonfuls in hot greased skillet and flatten into cakes. Brown well on both sides.

Cranberry Salad

Dissolve 1 pkg. Lemon Jello in  $1\frac{1}{2}$  cups hot water. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in 1 cup sweetened cranberry sauce, 1 cup chopped celery,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup drained crushed pineapple. Place in molds and chill until firm.

call them sea swallows for the grace of their pearly wings in swoop and dive. Birders call them by their proper names—Least, Common, Roseate, and Arctic Terns—and watch for their punctual arrival in the first week of May. They lay their eggs in shallow cups of sand on the wind-swept beach, and all summer long devotedly rear the perfectly camouflaged chicks.

Bird traffic on the Cape in spring is largely residents arriving to nest. Land birds moving northward follow an inland route.

In fall, however, the drift of migrants is eastward to the coast, borne on the westerly winds of a New England autumn. Certain weather patterns in September and October find a rain of small birds dropping into the thickets of the Cape as refuge from being blown to sea or as first resting place on return to land. They find shelter and food and a climate generally milder than the mainland. Many linger well into winter. The annual Christmas Census runs between 105 and 115 species, many aided through the winter by hospitable feeding stations.

EASTHAM'S SUPERB BEACHES
ARE IDEAL FOR ALL AGES
WHETHER YOU WALK, SWIM
SUN, SURF, OR BUILD CASTLES

By a rampart of sand these youngsters soak up sun and fun and await the sea's next inward surge.

Eastham's famous beaches both bay and ocean, are never more than a few minutes away no matter where you stay here. Nauset or the Great Beach extends for over five miles along the Atlantic Ocean in Eastham. Its broad sands play host to thousands yet it is never crowded for leisurely strolls or, between dips, for relaxation to the tune of the surf's steady orchestration.

There's beach play and healthful exercise aplenty and Nauset Beach is ideal for all bathers at low tide. But parents of very young children may prefer the warmer and generally shallower bathing available at high tide at the many public beaches along Eastham's Cape Cod Bay shore.

Clear, fresh water ponds, too, offer unexcelled bathing when you prefer a change from salt and surf.

EASTHAM'S FISHING IS FUN FOR SEASONED IKE WALTONS OR FOR NOVICE NIMRODS

During the summer the striped bass is king of salt water game fish in Cape Cod waters and Eastham's striper fishing is hard to beat. Surf casting all along the tides at Nauset Beach lures the experienced and the novice to try for the "big ones." And charter sport fishing boats, many skippered by Eastham men, will take you from Rock Harbor in quest of stripers offshore in the Bay.

Bluefish entice the angler too and are caught in both surf and bay in season. Flounder, tautog and a number of other good eating bottom fish make most any fishing trip from Eastham's shores something to recall happily.

A fisherman's dream fulfilled, and it could be you.

Eastham's Town Cove is an excellent spot for flounder and plaice fish and trolling for striped bass here offers additional thrills. There are several boat liveryes on the Cove shore so fishing can be fun for all the family.

The Fisherman's Players

Cape Cod, with its history of nurturing and producing actors, directors and playwrights for the contemporary theatre is living up to its reputation in an exciting new way. The Cape's newest child, The Fisherman's Players, located in the quaint fishing village of Wellfleet, is an unusual adventure in combining not only the arts of the theatre with the talents of a superb playwright, but equally combining the essence of belief and dedication like unto the first Christians. Thus, the product of religious drama combined with a coffeehouse proves an effective way of communicating important truths in our time.

The Fisherman's Players, under the sponsorship of the Eastham and Wellfleet Methodist Churches, is staffed by professional actors, apprentices, and many talented local people. It is most fortunate to have the leadership of Richard D. Waters, author and director of the plays, and pastor of the two sponsoring churches. In its first two seasons The Fisherman's Players has presented such controversial and exciting original dramas as, THE TRUANT APOSTLE, THE GREEN MAN, CHICKENHAWK, and the beautiful, poetic SON OF MAN.

Mr. Waters writes about things that are of vital interest to American audiences.

He writes in the tradition of the old fashioned morality play which gives him the freedom to deal with the complexities of the age. He is profound, but he is humorous, he is critical, but there is always hope, he is brutal, but he knows the value of love. He bares the cancer in our souls and he fills us with the awareness of our more noble selves. He challenges us to have the courage to become something more than we are, for it is as man becomes, as he grows spiritually that he finds his reason for existence and joy of life.

The season will open with Mr. Waters' newest play, CHARLEY AND THE "MAN WITH THE UPSIDE DOWN EYES." End of summer visitors last season saw the first writing of this production and will be thrilled as they see its growth and culmination, much of which was stimulated by the coffeehouse discussion. Dr. Neil Richardson, Professor at Boston University School of Theology has this to say about the play:

"This is a deeply moving and prophetic play. It is deeply moving because it reveals to our eyes and the eyes of all the world our own tortured and anguished souls. We see our own existential selves, and our church and our community with all of their deep rooted sinfulness and the pain of Tobias Finch becomes our pain.

"It is prophetic because it clearly reflects the themes and the mood of the biblical prophets with their deep and abiding concern for men's relationships with men. More than that it is a prophetic play because, like the biblical prophets it speaks God's word of judgement and of love to our total existence."

This forthcoming season will also feature a new adaptation of SON OF MAN and possibly another new play by Mr. Waters. Performances will be every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 p.m. in the basement of the Wellfleet Methodist Church. Tickets are $2.00 per seat and it is suggested that reservations be made by phone as the seating is limited. Information may be obtained by calling 349-2202.

The Cape Cod Visitor Center

Located just off Highway 6 on the hillside overlooking beautiful Salt Pond, the Cape Cod Visitor Center serves as the principal orientation and information center for Cape Cod National Seashore.

The lobby features a large relief map of Outer Cape Cod with significant places of interest within the National Seashore located on the map. An uniformed employee is on duty in the lobby to provide information, maps and free information folders. Selected books on Cape history and natural history are for sale. A schedule of interpretive activities within the National Seashore also is available here. Guided walks, evening talks, self-guided nature trails are offered to acquaint visitors with the human and natural history of Cape Cod National Seashore.

Slide programs or motion pictures are presented each half hour in the visitor center auditorium. In inclement weather, during the summer season, evening programs which are normally scheduled for the outdoor amphitheater will be given in this auditorium.

A museum in the other wing of the visitor center contains exhibits covering natural history, history, Indian life, whaling, fishing and farm life on Cape Cod.

Visitors are cordially invited to see the exhibits and attend the programs offered without charge by the National Park Service.

The center is open daily.

EASTHAM HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INC.

THE Eastham Historical Society, Inc. was founded in 1963 and membership now numbers 341, resident and non-resident. The object of the Society is to create and foster an interest in the town, to promote historical research, to collect and preserve artifacts, photographs, historical documents and to provide for their proper custody.

The above photograph shows the exterior progress that has been made in the restoration of the 1869 one room shoolhouse after ownership was acquired in May 1965. Restoration costs have been more than originally estimated. At the time of going to press $9500. in cash and pledges has been received. An additional $2500. is needed. Further contributions and pledges can be sent to the Society, at P.O. Box 8, Eastham, Mass. 02642.

Suitable gifts will be welcomed by the Society for the museum, and may be left at the Eastham Library. Or Frederick H. Jewell, Curator, will gladly arrange to pick them up.

Apart from the museum project and lectures, historical signs have been placed at the two old cemeteries and the "First Encounter Site" with benches near the memorial plaque at the latter. Memorial stones have been placed on the graves of the three Mayflower passengers in the "Old Cove Burial Ground" on Route 6. Further projects are to place historical markers on old houses and historical sites; other worthy historical projects will be given consideration.

New members will be welcomed. The fee is $1.00 per person a year for adults, 50 cents for children. Applications may be sent to Mrs. E. E. Kattwinkel, Secy., Box 8, Eastham, Mass. 02642.

Target Ship In Bay Serves A Good Purpose

This target ship in Cape Cod Bay was a victory ship named General James E. Longstreet. Towed to its present position early in World War II, it rests on the bottom of the Bay and is used for target practice by U.S. Air Force planes stationed at nearby air fields. Light caliber ammunition as well as rockets and practice bombs are used to train the plane crews. When towed into position the ship was new but incomplete and had no engines.

ALL ROADS LEAD to EASTHAM

AFTER you cross the Cape Cod Canal at the Sagamore Bridge and start along the Mid-Cape Highway, Eastham is the very first town you come to without having to make a turn off the Highway. Just 39 miles along this super-highway when you use the Sagamore Bridge, Eastham is but a few miles more if you use the Bourne Bridge.
